MEDIA EXPERIENCE

Host of Weekly Radio Show, "Moore About Faith" (KIXL, 970 AM) | February 1, 1997 to October 7, 2000

Interviewed guests (e.g. Michael Behe, William F. Buckley, Michael Card, Jean Bethke Elshtain, Os Guinness, Carl Henry, E.D. Hirsch, John MacArthur, George Marsden, Martin Marty, Mark Noll, Marvin Olasky, Neil Postman, Cal Thomas, Paul Vitz, John Walvoord, Dallas Willard, Ravi Zacharias) along with teaching on issues related to culture and theology.

"Dave Moore is one of the very best radio interviewers. He read the book that the interview concerned, not just the book jacket. He asked thoughtful questions that kept me from going on the auto pilot that kicks in after a few dozen interviews. I tremendously enjoyed the change."

Professor Marvin Olasky
Author, The Tragedy of American Compassion

"Most of the people who have interviewed me on radio are not well informed about my work. The interview I did on 'Moore About Faith' was a pleasant change. I enjoyed it very much."

Professor E.D. Hirsch
Author, The Dictionary of Cultural Literacy

PBS Special (aired nationally)—Interviewed William F. Buckley

"Dear David: That was a fine interview, I say as an alumnus of a great many. Your queries are sharp, yet congenial. The grip you have on your material wonderfully managed and you have a fine capacity to stimulate all the glands of curiosity. My congratulations."

The Late William F. Buckley
TV Commentator and Author
Editor-at-large, National Review

Moore Engaging Interview Show

"Dave did his homework, asked all the right questions, and was pleasure to sit down with. He's a real pro."

Tony Horwitz
Pulitzer-prize winner and best-selling author

Patheos/Jesus Creed Interviews

“David Moore’s interview questions were focused and relevant. He has a unique ability to draw out answers from the interviewee that go beyond the usual clichés and boilerplate. I found the experience of being interviewed by him to be stimulating. It helped me focus on the main points I tried to get across in my book.”

James McPherson
Pulitzer-prize winning historian

Interviewed on international television show (“The Harvest Show,” April 24, 2008) and radio (local and national) for The Last Men’s Book You’ll Ever Need.
